C# Exercise – World Clock

Create a console application to display a world clock as shown below.

The World Clock should display 4 cities of your choice plus local time. Display for the four cities should each be centered in the screen quadrants. The local time should display center-screen.